

Self-knowledge and the Transformation of Consciousness

International Retreat at The Krishnamurti Study Centre
Rajghat Fort | Varanasi 221 001 | Uttar Pradesh | India

2 - 8 January 2019

"Self-knowledge is awareness of the self without division; and as long as there is no self-knowledge, the multiplication and re-creation of our problems will continue...Only through self-knowledge can there be transformation, and this transformation cannot come into being through any miracle, through book learning, but only through constant experimentation, through constant discovery of the process of one's being."

- J. Krishnamurti, Talk 11, Bombay, 28 March 1948

The Krishnamurti Study and Retreat Centre, Varanasi is happy to announce its second full week residential International Retreat from 2 - 8 January, 2019. The intention of this retreat is to create an ambiance that would enable the participants to enter into a spirit of serious inquiry. The talks, study material, group dialogues, video-screenings of Krishnamurti's talks, will all be intended to unfold and explore deeply the different aspects of the central theme: Self-knowledge and the Transformation of Consciousness. The programme will be designed in such a way that there will be space to be quiet, to be with nature, to gather the energy necessary to observe, reflect on the theme, and share our observations. We intend to have in depth investigation and heart to heart conversations and dialogues on the questions that will be raised while listening to Krishnamurti's talks.

Venue

The lush green, serene campus of the Study Centre, situated at the confluence of the rivers Ganga and Varuna in Varanasi, is the venue for the event. Participants will be accommodated in the rooms/cottages in the study centre campus as well as in the school hostels, with enough number of common baths nearby.
